

Black Genocide In Former Slave State

More than half of the abortions done in Georgia are of black babies. Not only that, there were 501 abortions nationally for every 1,000 births in the black community. If that is not black genocide, I don't know what would qualify. If you think things were worse for black people when Georgia was a slave state, you aren't paying attention.

These statistics are just disturbing. Most of you are probably aware that the founder of Planned Parenthood, Margaret Sanger, was a confirmed eugenicist and rabid racist, but, just to make sure, here's a little quote for you to chew on:

DEFINITION OF GENOCIDE

"Article II: In the present Convention, genocide means any of the following acts committed with intent to destroy, in whole or in part, a national, ethnical, racial or religious group, as such:

- (a) Killing members of the group;
- (b) Causing serious bodily or mental harm to members of the group;
- (c) Deliberately inflicting on the group conditions of life calculated to bring about its physical destruction in whole or in part;
- (d) Imposing measures intended to prevent births within the group;
- (e) Forcibly transferring children of the group to another group.

We should hire three or four colored ministers, preferably with social-service backgrounds, and with engaging personalities. The most successful educational approach to the Negro is through a religious appeal. We don't want the word to go out that we want to exterminate the Negro population, and the minister is the man who can straighten out that idea if it ever occurs to any of their more rebellious members. Well, she got her wish. Whether it's Jesse Jackson or Al Sharpton or countless other black liberals, black genocide is in full swing and they are selling it hard to the black community. Why don't black people pull away from these leaders? From the Democrat Party? Seriously. I don't understand it. Conservatives are regularly accused of racism because of our general stance against the welfare state, but doesn't anyone understand the connection here? As of 2012, about 60% of black people were dependent on civil government assistance. Welfare and black genocide go hand in hand. Black genocide is just the government's way of saving money. Call it racism. Call it what you want. The conservative rejection of welfare and abortion also goes hand in hand. We want people to take care of themselves for the most part. We want people to live dignified and upstanding lives, and we think they have a better chance of doing that when they aren't being handicapped by civil government largesse. Black Americans need to wake up. White Americans too for that matter. The civil government is not your friend right now. It's time we forced the civil government to let us take care of ourselves. This black genocide needs to end.

Planned Parenthood President: My Childrens' Lives Began At Delivery

By Philip Hodges

She was asked when life began. Of course, she never actually answered the question. She tried ducking it by saying that it's not really relevant to the issue of abortion. She didn't feel that it was really "part of this conversation." But when she finally divulged, she said this:

For me – I'm a mother of three children – for me, life began when I delivered them. They've probably been the most important thing in my life ever since. But that was my own personal decision.

But we all know that the question of when life begins is relevant to the abortion issue. In fact, it's central. If life begins at conception, then abortion is murder, plain and simple. If life begins at delivery, then poor Kermit Gosnell is a martyr. She just doesn't want to admit it that life begins at conception. That would be bad for business.
